About the Conference.....

The chapter on fundamental duties of the Indian Constitution clearly imposes duty on every citizen to protect our environment. Article 51-A (g) says that "It shall be duty of every citizen of India to protect and improve the natural environment including forests, lakes, rivers and wild life and to have compassion for living creatures." It is with this background the present conference is organized to spread awareness among all spheres of the society with special emphasis on recent development in biological research to protect our environment.

About the department.....

Established in the year 1961, the department offers M.Sc. and Ph.D courses in Zoology. The Department received financial assistance from Govt. of India under its DST-FIST, DST-PURSE and UGC SAP DRS.
