

RUSA Component-10 funded

Six Month Certificate Course

on

Biodiversity Mapping & Conservation

Being offered by the Department of Botany, University of Kalyani

In collaboration with
West Bengal Biodiversity Board
(Dept. of Environment, Government of West Bengal)
&
World Wide Fund for Nature-India

This is a Project and Internship-based Course

Internship (self-financed) shall be assigned to learners on a choice-based manner/ background/ interest under different collaborating organization, viz., West Bengal Biodiversity Board (Dept. of Environment, Govt. of West Bengal), WWF - India and University of Kalyani.

Seats available: 15

Essential Qualification:

Post Graduates in Botany, Zoology, Environmental Science, Ecological Studies, Geography, and Economics

Desirable Qualification:

Experience of working / being associated in any relevant field.

Application to be made in appended Google Form Link

<https://forms.gle/Ysx9Pjg4vvgWnGu97>